

Developing a culture of energy conservation both in enterprises and in everyday life is crucial. It is essential to minimize unnecessary electricity and gas consumption and to actively adopt ...

Energy conservation and the development of renewable energy sources are among the priority tasks in Uzbekistan. Particular attention is paid to ensuring environmental sustainability and ...

At the "Powering the Future" forum in Tashkent, Uzbekistan unveiled 42 renewable, storage, and grid projects, with international partners supporting a nationwide energy transformation.

Uzbekistan is strategically positioned to develop its green energy potential, benefiting from a surplus of inexpensive labor and over 320 sunny days annually. Studies indicate that ...

At a recently concluded meeting on March 26, 2025, President Shavkat Mirziyoyev of Uzbekistan gave an outline of the ambitious targets, which were saving 1.1 billion cubic meters when it came to natural ...

Despite rapid economic growth, Uzbekistan has managed to reduce energy use per unit of economic output. Between 2017 and 2024, the country's GDP grew by 55%, while energy intensity ...

According to the analysis, the implementation of measures in this Law would help to reach Uzbekistan's target of 20% energy efficiency in coming years, save significant amount of ...

Free Online Library: List of articles about Uzbekistan in Energy conservation category

As part of the Promoting Just Energy Transition in Uzbekistan project, jointly implemented by UNECE, UNDP, and the ILO, scenario analysis serves as a key tool to explore plausible pathways for ...

Since 2017, the country has moved beyond blueprints and into real-world change, marked by significant gains in Uzbekistan electricity production, a surge in renewable energy, and ...

Web: <https://www.thehibiscuscoast.co.za>