

General Administration of Customs Solar Power Generation Project

The Central Board of Indirect Taxes and Customs (CBIC) has revoked the permission granted to solar developers to warehouse imported solar modules effective from December 17, 2024.

From December 17, 2024, goods for solar power generation projects cannot undergo certain manufacturing processes in warehouses, per new Customs Notification.

The Central Board of Indirect Taxes and Customs (CBIC) has ...

No more duty-free import of solar power items: CBIC The Central Board of Indirect Taxes and Customs (CBIC) announced that effective December 17, goods imported for solar power ...

In a recent notification, the CBIC stated that manufacturing processes and related operations involving imported goods for solar power generation projects supplying electricity would ...

Exclusion of Solar power plants and projects from Project import regulations. The CBIC vide Notification 54/2022-Customs dated 19th October"2022 amended the Project Import Regulation, 1986 to ...

In a notification, the Central Board of Indirect Taxes and Customs (CBIC) said the manufacturing process and other operations in relation to "goods imported for solar power generation ...

New Delhi: The Central Board of Indirect Taxes and Customs (CBIC) has rescinded customs duty deferment benefits available to solar power generation companies supplying electricity ...

With the present notification, the government has made it clear that as part of the policy, they do not intend to allow the MOOWR benefits to the solar power-generating sector.

To push domestic manufacturing, the government has withdrawn a scheme, which permitted duty-free import of goods for solar power generation.

The government, through a notification issued under Section 65 (1) of the Customs Act, 1962 (CA 62), has prospectively legitimised the administrative bar on import, without payment of ...

Web: <https://www.thehibiscuscoast.co.za>